KEY FINDINGS

The Forum is the annual conference for the Association for Institutional Research and is the world's largest gathering of higher education professionals working in institutional research, assessment, planning, and related postsecondary education fields. The conference features presentations by practitioners who represent all sectors of higher education and an exhibit hall that features the latest tools and resources to support data use for decision making.

Throughout the 2016 AIR Forum, data from session evaluations were collected to evaluate the participant experience. That information, coupled with the overall Forum evaluation and evaluations from Forum sponsors, will inform the planning of the conference in future years. (See appendix for data collection methods.)

Some notable findings from the evaluations include:

- 2,009 people attended the 2016 AIR Forum.
- 92% of respondents would recommend the Forum to a colleague.
- 33% of respondents attended Forum for the first time in 2016, and 33% have attended 5 or more times.
- Professional development is the number one reason respondents attend the Forum (90%). Networking is the second reason (66%).
- 74% said they established new connections at the Forum which they plan to maintain.
- 85% agreed that the opening keynote speaker, David Longanecker, provided important information.
- 94% said the Friday keynote speaker, Ben Castleman, delivered important information.
- 87% of respondents who attended workshops said they gained knowledge or skills they can use immediately.
- 66% of respondents attended 6 or more speaker/panel/discussion sessions.
- 94% of respondents found speaker/panel/discussion sessions topics to be current and of interest.
- 95% of respondents who participated in dinner groups rated the gatherings as good networking experiences.
- 93% of respondents visited the Exhibit Hall; of those, 56% talked with sponsors about their products and services.

SECTION 1: OVERALL EXPERIENCE

One of the best performance metrics is the willingness of a participant to recommend an experience to a friend. 92% of respondents would recommend the Forum to colleagues (Chart 1).

Table 1 features Overall Evaluation metrics for 2016 in comparison to previous Forums, and includes three additional metrics.

Table 1. Longitudinal Comparison of Overall Evaluation	2016 Forum			2015 Forum			2014 Forum

*NOTE: "Disagree" is the combination of answer options "Strongly disagree" and "Slightly disagree" and "Agree" is the combination of "Strongly agree" and "Slightly agree".

Comments from Forum Participants

What did you find most valuable about your Forum experience?

As a new director, the entire Forum was very valuable as it allowed me to hear people speaking the IR language and it gave me ample opportunity to learn about things that are very relevant to reorganization of my office.

Discussing ideas and issues with colleagues outside of the presentations. Meeting new/seasoned people in IR who are dealing with the same issues I am.

Great mix of sessions, timing of sessions was great. I learned a lot from the 'lessons learned' sessions. Great mix of networking and sessions. Loved the planned breaks in the exhibit hall.

I liked the discussion sessions a lot. I really enjoyed attending those, I liked that they were the same time as the speaker sessions, and I felt like it was good to have something more interactive than the speaker sessions to mix it up.

It was an amazing experience. I appreciated the opportunity to hear some amazing speakers, and reconnect with colleagues. Great experience!

Learning tips and tricks from colleagues, updates on regular activities, networking, opportunity to present and share ideas.

Networking with colleagues and being reminded that we are not alone in our work and in the challenges we face. A chance to reflect and think about our roles and the future of IR through a 'big picture' lens.

When asked what one change would have improved the Forum experience, respondents offered a wide range of responses, including improving the internet speed, more options for food/beverage, and requiring presenters to upload their session materials to MyForum.

SECTION 2: MOTIVATORS TO ATTEND FORUM

We asked attendees what motivated them to attend the Forum. 90% of respondents cited professional development as a strong motivator compared to 83% in 2015, and 66% referenced networking opportunities, compared to 53% in 2015. (Chart 2 and Table 2. )

We asked attendees to describe other motivators for their decisions to attend Forum. Responses included having the opportunity to ask advice from fellow IR professionals, gaining information at national and international levels, and recruiting staff.

SECTION 3: LOGISTICS

Quality service is an important component of an enjoyable conference experience. More than 90% of respondents were satisfied with the onsite and online registration processes, and 88% were satisfied with service from AIR staff during Forum (Chart 3 and Table 3).

SECTION 4: SCHEDULE PLANNING, MYFORUM, AND FORUM MOBILE APPS

We asked attendees to identify the methods they used to schedule their time at the conference. 79% of respondents used the Forum mobile app and 82% used the MyForum website (Chart 4a).

A notable difference in the 2016 metrics when compared to previous years was the increased use of the Forum mobile app. In 2016, 56% of respondents said the Forum mobile app was their main source of planning, up from 45% in 2015 and 37% in 2014 (Table 4a).

	2016 Forum			2015 Forum			2014 Forum
	Did not use it	Used it but not main source for planning	Main source of planning	Did not use it	Used it but not main source for planning	Main source of planning	Did not use it	Used it but not main source for planning	Main source of planning
Table 4a. Longitudinal Comparison of Schedule Planning

Printed program book	31%	40%	29%	32%	41%	28%	26%	45%	29%

AIR relies exclusively on the Forum mobile app for session evaluations. Chart 4b provides a comparison of satisfaction with this process in recent years. Differences in satisfaction rates in 2016 may be a reflection of conversion to a different (unfamiliar) mobile app platform this year.

Chart 4b. Satisfaction using Forum App for Evaluations	Very/slightly dissatisfied	Neutral	Very/slightly satisfied

SECTION 5: KEYNOTE SPEAKER EVENTS

In 2016, AIR hosted two keynote speaker events. Chart 5a displays the results of the evaluation of the meals and networking opportunities provided at the keynote events.

The opening keynote speaker, David Longanecker, then-president of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE), spoke on Higher Education in the New Normal of the 21st Century – An Era of Evidence Based Change. The closing keynote speaker, Ben Castleman, Assistant Professor of Education and Public Policy at the University of Virginia, shared Data-Driven Behavioral Nudges: A Low-Cost Strategy to Improve Postsecondary Education.

Chart 5b shows the results from the evaluations of the keynote speeches. 75% of respondents agreed that the opening keynote session was a valuable part of the conference, and 88% agreed that the closing keynote session was valuable.

Comments about the Opening Keynote Speech

Fantastic keynote. Very valuable information for those new to IR and longtime in IR. It was a nice frame to start off the conference!

I thought the speaker did a GREAT job of presenting on a topic relevant to all participants in an engaging way. It really set the stage for thinking about the future while going into the sessions.

Very interesting and thought-provoking presentation.

Comments about the Closing Keynote Speech

I want Dr. Castleman to speak to my campus.

Very engaging speaker with valuable information for institutional researchers.

SECTION 6: EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

Recommend to a Colleague

The Forum offers a wide range of educational sessions, and conference participants were encouraged to evaluate the quality of those experiences. Responses to the metric “I would recommend this session to a colleague” (disaggregated by session type) is detailed below. The figures in parentheses represent the total numbers of sessions in each category. (See also: Chart 6a)

- Poster sessions (60): 92% of individuals who responded to poster session evaluations would recommend those sessions to colleagues, compared to 91% in 2015.
- Pre-conference workshops (23): 82% of 2016 respondents who participated in workshops indicated that they would recommend workshops to colleagues, compared to 80% in 2015.
- Speaker sessions (184): 82% of respondents indicated that they would recommend speaker sessions to colleagues, compared to 79% in 2015.

Plenary Sessions

The 2016 Forum featured two concurrent plenary sessions. At the first plenary, Courtney Brown of the Lumina Foundation, Jennifer Engle of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and Elise Miller of the Access Group Center for Research and Policy Analysis addressed Using Data to Change the World. At the second plenary, Tom Allison, Deputy Policy and Research Director for the Young Invincibles, spoke about Students, Data and Decisions. Chart 6b shows the results of session evaluations for these sessions.

Comments from Forum Participants

Great plenary - I really appreciate being able to hear from these three groups. Thank you!

Interesting topic and useful viewpoints to consider.

Great overview of issues in data coordination and data focus.

IR tends to be so focused on providing data to senior administration, but much less concerned about how we give data to students. Thanks for reinforcing this important idea and giving some practical advice to get us thinking.

I liked the design example slides. Those made an impression.

Pre-Conference Workshops

Taking a closer look at the workshop experience, we found that 93% of respondents agreed that the presenters were experts in their topics, and 92% said that the workshop content was relevant to their work (Chart 6c).

Table 6a compares the metrics above with evaluations from 2014 and 2015.

*NOTE: "Disagree" is the combination of answer options "Strongly disagree" and "Slightly disagree" and "Agree" is the combination of "Strongly agree" and "Slightly agree".

Impact Sessions

The 2016 Forum opened with a new opportunity for participants. Nine Impact Sessions featured invited speakers who discussed emerging and important topics and issues in higher education. Chart 6c shows the results of session evaluations collected for the Impact Sessions.

Comments from Forum Participants

Hearing about other institutions who report to CBO lines was helpful to {identify} the similarities and differences to ours.

The combination of mini-presentations, moderated panel discussion, and audience Q&A is an effective format for conveying information effectively and maintaining audience attentions.

Very good to hear about what to expect when it comes to accreditation.

Appreciate the helpful tips on implementation and training.

I liked how the theme was carried through into other presentations at the conference.

Concurrent Sessions (Speaker, Panel, Discussion Groups, and Poster Sessions)

The heart of Forum is the concurrent sessions (speaker, panel, discussion groups, and poster sessions). The 2016 Forum featured 312 concurrent sessions. Two-thirds of respondents said they attended 6 or more sessions.

Tables 6b, 6c, 6d, and 6e show the results of speaker, panel, discussion group, and poster session evaluations compared to previous years.

Comments from Forum Participants

How can we improve concurrent, panel, and discussion group sessions next year?

Ask all speakers to upload their presentations of papers to the Forum mobile app.

Better titles and descriptions in the materials so we are all clear on what is going to be covered in advance.

It would be wonderful if there weren't clustering of topics. I am currently learning R and the sessions covering aspects of data analysis, cleaning, visualization in R all seemed to land on the same times.

Sponsored Sessions (Speaker Sessions and Discussion Groups)

Sponsors are an important component of the AIR Forum. As part of their sponsorship package, silver-level sponsors are provided the opportunity to host a discussion group, and gold, platinum, and diamond sponsors may host a discussion group or present a speaker session. Tables 6h and 6i show the results of session evaluations collected from sponsor speaker sessions and discussion groups. Ratings are comparable to non-sponsored sessions.

Comments from Forum Participants

Great content, lots of food for thought! Nice presentation style as well.

Great presentation and thank you for all these insights of funding and starting the consortium.

Excellent and engaging public speaker. One of my favorite sessions of the conference.

SECTION 7: DINNER GROUPS

Dinner groups were offered on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. 28% of respondents indicated that they participated in one or more dinner groups (up from 19% in 2015), 91% said the experience added value to their Forum experiences, and 90% would recommend the experience to a colleague (Chart 7).

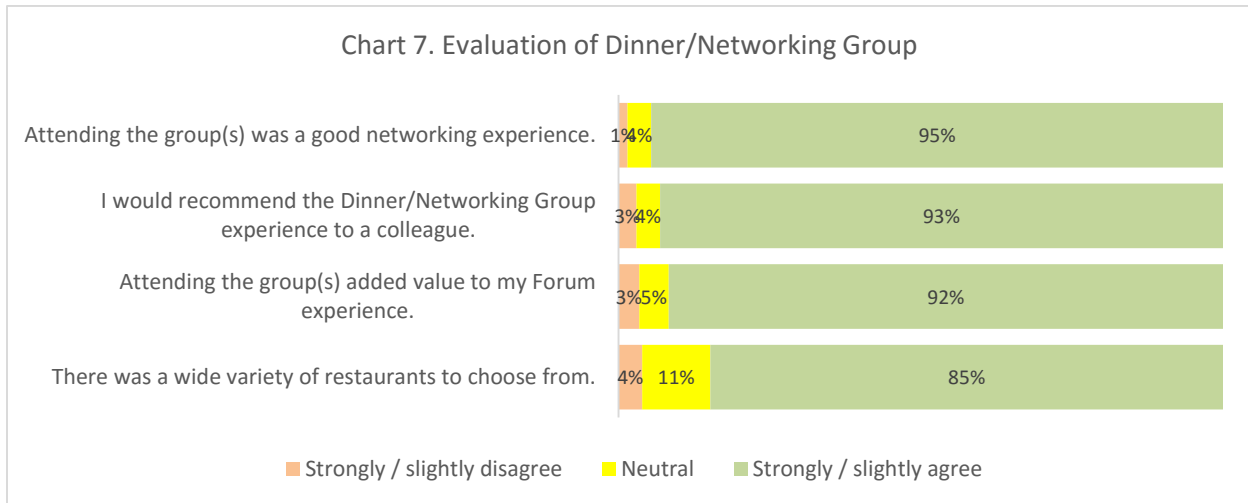

Table 7 compares the 2016 metrics to previous years. The measure of satisfaction that realized the largest increase was “It was a good networking experience.”

SECTION 8: EXHIBIT HALL

The Exhibit Hall was home to sponsor booths, poster sessions, the Cyber Café, receptions, and coffee breaks. 93% of respondents indicated that they visited the Exhibit Hall, slightly higher than reported in 2015 and 2014 (92% and 90%, respectively.)

We asked respondents to estimate the amount of time spent in the Exhibit Hall. Half of respondents indicated that they spent about one hour (Chart 8a).

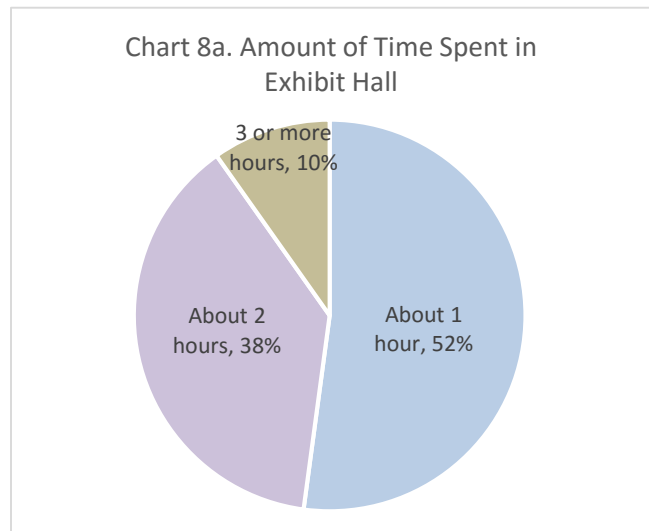

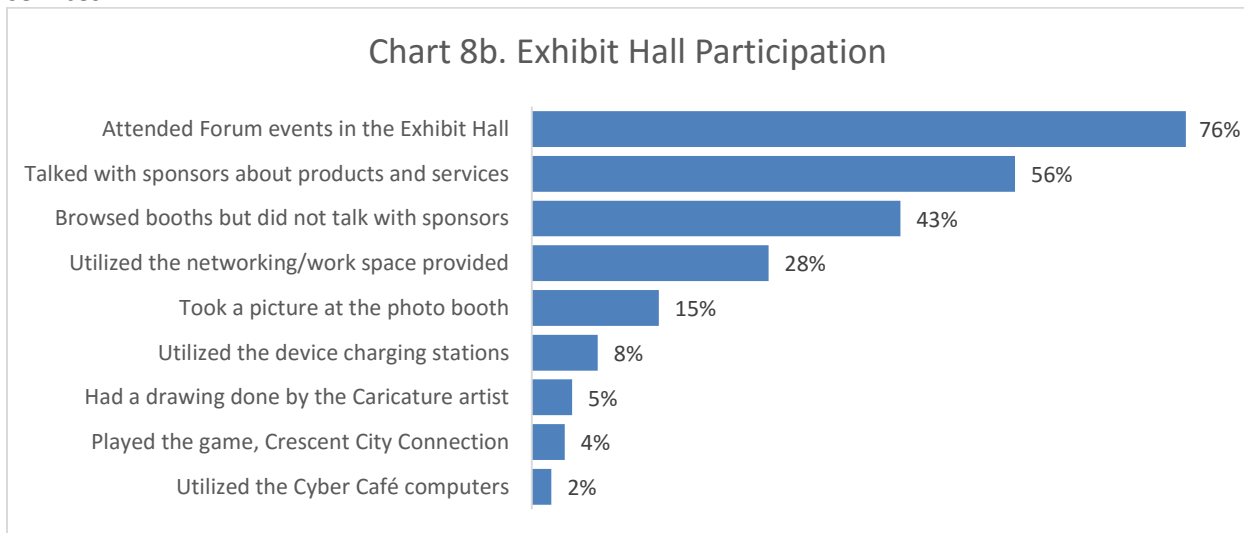

Chart 8b highlights respondents' participation in Exhibit Hall activities. 76% attended events in the Exhibit Hall, such as poster sessions and receptions, and 56% talked with exhibitors/sponsors about products and services.

SECTION 9: NETWORKING GAME

In 2016, AIR introduced a new app supported networking game, “The Crescent City Connection,” to help build engagement with Forum activities and support networking among Forum participants. In its inaugural year, approximately 1 out of 10 Forum attendees participated.

Participants earned badges for participating in a variety of activities, such as attending a session or submitting a session evaluation, interacting with sponsors in the Exhibit Hall, attending dinner groups, etc. The individuals who earned the most badges were awarded prizes.

Chart 9a displays badge activity among participants.

67% of respondents recommended that AIR continue the game next year, and 55% said the game encouraged them to be more involved in Forum activities (Chart 9b).
